GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN CAREER DEVELOPMENT PRACTICE

reflects the role of career development practitioners. Practitioners at this level make high level, independent, complex judgements in the context of providing guidance in career development. Their role involves the full responsibility and accountability for all aspects of their work.

Practitioners may work independently or in larger service organisations.

This qualification is designed to advance your career by helping others. This program is designed for both aspiring career development practitioners and those currently practicing who want to develop their skills and obtain professional standing in the career development industry.

By completing this course, you will fulfil the requirements of the Career Development Association and be able to access the Member Centre for all your membership details, CPD and resources.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES:

Employment Consultants
Career Engagement Officers
Guidance Counsellors

Human Resources Consultants
Human Resources Managers
Corporate Change Agents

RPL

Sometimes it can be difficult to find the time and effort to fit an entire course into our lives, especially for those already working and juggling other commitments. Work experience or formal qualifications you have may count towards your course.

This is where Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) comes into play, where your previous skills, experience or qualifications can shorten the time it takes to undergo a course and allow you to become eligible for qualifications you may not otherwise be able to do.

STUDY MODE:

As the course is either through RPL, online or via blended delivery, students will require access to a computer, and the internet, and have basic computing skills significant previous experience working in a job role involving the self-directed application of knowledge with substantial depth in some areas and the exercise of independent judgement and decision making.

PREFERRED PATHWAYS FOR CANDIDATES CONSIDERING THIS QUALIFICATION INCLUDE:

a qualification at diploma level or higher in a discipline related to career development or counselling work

Language Literacy and Numeracy skills assessment may be required before enrolment can be confirmed.
